Enoteca Restaurant GALLO NERO in Greve in Chianti ~ specialities on the barbecue and typical dish

The wine bar-restaurant, Gallo Nero, is found in the charming town of Greve in Chianti, just off the main square, Piazza Matteotti, in the heart of the world famous Tuscan area renowned for its fine wines, not by chance known as the “wine road“, due to the centuries old association with the production of the best Chianti wine.

The Gallo Nero has ample parking space for clients; originally the location was a rest stop for travelers and still today it offers passers- by a perfect location for a meal, perhaps before continuing on to visit the beautiful surrounding countryside.

Here, in a traditional but charming and stylish ambience, you can chose from typical Tuscan dishes, appetizing starters, toasted breads and individually selected cuts of meat, cooked on the open wood fire, naturally all accompanied by the best wine Chianti has to offer.

In this calm and discreet atmosphere, you are our guests and we will warmly welcome you. The delights of your meal, the distinctive flavors of fine quality Tuscan meat including spiced sausages and the famous traditional Florentine steak, toasted breads enriched with locally produced Extra Virgin olive oil, grilled local cheeses and homemade pasta made daily, all adhere to the traditional methods of Florentine cooking and use only the best and the freshest local ingredients.

The spacious and welcoming dining room of the Gallo Nero is perfect for corporate dinners, family groups, business lunches, celebrations and every occasion to get together in good company.

Our choice wine selection, chosen to enhance and compliment your meal, will delight and stimulate a wish to return to us in our restaurant, where a modern atmosphere meets the traditional flavors of Tuscany.
